

All About Us

Who We Are

Down East Destinations is a "one stop" full-service, turn-key event management company. We are expert in providing destination management and customized tours. We also have a great deal of experience with corporate meetings and teambuilding events. On a more personal note, we love arranging your special events, including special location weddings.

Why Hire Us

We work with our clients from initial conception throughout the entire planning and implementation stage of your event. Our knowledge, twenty-five year reputation and unique blend of experience, in combination with our creative suggestions and solutions to difficult challenges within a given budget make us a valuable partner to our clients. Our ability to bring your vision into focus and create an outstanding teambuilding experience, special event or customized tour that "reflects your objectives and provides a positive return" on your investment sets us apart from others. Bottom line, we simply love working with people, anticipating all their needs, and it shows! On top of that, we love our special town of Oriental and its grand environs, and will be delighted to share it with you.
